The decease of Nathaniel B. Browne, of Philadelphia, March 13, aged 55 years, was announced by Mr. E. K. Price, and on motion Mr. Robert Patterson was appointed to prepare an obituary notice of the deceased.

Mr. Frazer described and discussed the origin of certain beds and belts of limonite in Southern Pennsylvania, with the help of a colored map of York and Adams County, and a geological map of Pennsylvania. Dr. König and Mr. Lesley spoke on the same subject. (See page 364.)

Pending nominations 766 to 779 were read.

On motion of Dr. Cresson, for the Publication Committee, an additional appropriation of one hundred dollars was made to defray the expense of the illustrations of Dr. Allen's Memoir now being printed in the Transactions.

General Tyndale presented the request of the Directors of the Franklin Insurance Company that the Society permit Mr. Waugh to make for them a copy of the portrait of Franklin in the possession of the Society. On motion of Mr. Chase, the curators were authorized to permit such copy to be made, taking the usual and proper precautions for the security and safe return in good order of the picture.

On motion of Dr. Cresson another album volume similar to the one now filled with portraits of the members of the Society was ordered to be purchased.

And the meeting was adjourned.

NOTE BY DR. CARSON.

The picture of Franklin in the possession of the American Philosophical Society is by Martin, of London, a copy by himself of a picture painted by him, of Dr. Franklin, for William Alexander's grandson, Henry J. Williams, Esq., of Philadelphia. The copy was placed by Franklin, about 1765, in the keeping of the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania, and upon the abolition of that body at the time of the Revolution came into the hands (probably) of Mr. Peale when his Museum was in the Hall of the American Philosophical Society, and was by him there left at the removal of the Museum to the State House. This statement is made to Dr. Carson by Mr. Williams, who has the original.
